DEPARTMENT OF THE INVESTOR. Office Indian Affairs, Signature 19, 1862. From information received at this Departent, deemed sufficiently reliable to warrant me in so doing, I consider it my duty to war all persons contemplating the crossing of the Plains this fall to Utah or the Pucific coast that there is good reason to apprehend hostile iles on the part of the Bannock and Shoehe Smake Indians, as well as the Indians upon the Plains and along the Platte river.

The indians referred to have during the pas summer committed several robberies and mur ders. They are numerous, powerful, and war like, and, should they generally assume a hos tile attitude, are capable of rendering the emi grant routes across the Plains extremely peril ous. Hence this warning.

The Buemy Rejoices Over the Exploits of the Hetaliation on Sea for Plunder Land."

The Richmond papers of Friday last are hand. The news in them is rather inter sting. THE "290" TOUCHES THE SENSIBILITIES OF TH

N. Y. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. From the Richmond Dispatch.

The piteous groans of the New York Chamber of Commerce over the destruction of The piteous groans of the New York Chamber of Commerce over the destruction of Yankee property upon the high seas by Confederate vessels, show where the shoe pinches, and where we ought to strike the enemy if we would hurt him most. The doleful lamentations of these "Shylocks" over their lost diamonds are music to our ears. Nothing can equal the satisfaction which they experience from robbing other people, except the anguish they suffer in being robbed themselves. The vital part of these gentry lies in their pockets; the sensative nerve of their whole system is in their purses, and, when that is effectually pierced, the death agony is sudden and 'tremediable.

A great deal has been said about invading the North, and seizing the great centers of its wealth—Philadelphia, New York and Boston. This would be desirable if practicable: but whether it is practicable or not, is another thing, which is more important, is practicable, and that it is to cut off the sources of its wealth and the golden streams which supply the reservoirs of its prosperity. If Northern commerce upon the ocean could be destroyed, or even to any great extent crippled, we should do the Lincoln empire more damage, at less cost, than by any land invalence of their territories. The peculiar sensitiveness which the North manifested, long ago, in regard to privateers, ought at once to bave taught us where our blows could be most effectively struck. They would never have singled out privateersmen as the objects of peculiar vengeance, and threatened to treat them as pirates, if they had not felt that the privateers were assailing their weak spot, and the when we had only two or three little vessels upon the waters.

when we find only two or three little vessels upon the waters.

Now that we have several efficient vessels, sailing fast and well armed, they are thrown into convulsions, and begin to tremble for the future. It is evident that the true way to retaliate for their plunder upon land is to assail them upon the seas, and make it a matter of uncertainty whenever a ship leaves a Northern them upon the seas, and make it a matter of uncertainty whenever a ship leaves a Northem port whether she will ever arrive at her anticipated haven. For this purpose we must increase our navy and our privateersmen, and if the enemy undertake to make any distinction between them and any other class of our fighting men, to retaliate, life for life, upon every prisoner in our lands. We are glad to learn from the doleful statements of the New York Chamber of Commerce that the Commerce that the learn from the doleful statements of the New York Chamber of Commerce that the Con-federates have several other formidable vessels in course of preparation, besides those which have already spread such consternation throughout Yankeeslom.

We trust they may harrass the Yankee com-merce upon every sea, and make a speedy prey of their rich argosies of California and the Indies. We have skillful and gallant naval officers in abundance, and the time is at hand officers in abundance, and the time is at hand when they will reap laurels as rich and abun-dant as their brethren upon the land. Our Government should elevate its most powerful pergies to this means of harrassing the enem much at sea. They will be slow sailers, and not easily handled in a rough sea. Our fleet ships, where they cannot fight them, can easily escape them, and when they cannot carry off their prizes, can sink them, which is just as had for the Yankees. Let us hear some more groans from the Chamber of Compared.

Gen. Rosecrans Serenaded—His Patriotic Fervor and Hopefulnes—A Powerful Move anticipated, &c.

Correspondence of the New York Times LOUISVILLE, Oct. 31.—Major Gen. Rose crans looks in fine spirits. He was screnaded at the Galt House last night. His remarks to a great crowd, were very hopeful and cheering. He is full of patriotic enthusiasm and energy. He expressed himself confident that the Union will soon be restored with even more than its former strength and pros-perity. The main army of the Ohio is likely to be transferred to his Department of the Cumberland. Major General Thomas A. Morris, of Indiana, may command the fourth army corps, lately under Major General Gor-don Granger. A powerful move toward Cumberland Gap, Knoxville, and Chattanoo-

PURSUIT OF THE PRIVATEER ALABAMA. Com. W. D. Porter has offered to go in par-suit of the privateer Alabama in the ship Dreadnaught, provided the New York merchants have her converted into a man-of-war.

In a very short time she can be fitted for sea, and I recommend this step to their (the merchants) notice. If they have sufficient confidence in me, and the Government will allow me, I will superintend the outlit of this vessel, and do my very best to take the Ala-bama: but should they desire a better officer, then permit me to recommend to them Capt. George Francis Train, Esq.:

DEAR Siz: At a meeting of the students of Harvard College, held last evening, it was resolved that if possible some arrangement should be made that you may address them on the great topics of the day, and especially the pending question.

Admiring your manly defence of your country's honor while abroad, we wish that, if not inconsistent with your agreements you will try's nonor while abroad, we wish that, if not inconsistent with your arrangements, you will gratify our desire to hear you.

Feeling deeply for the late insult you suffered even within the sacred precincts of Fancuil Hall, me desire to do all in our power to honor a martyr in the sacred cause of Free Speech. Specch.
Please address immediately, John H. Ham

October 11, 1862.

DEAR HARVARD UNIVERSITY: Yes, and with much delight, but when, that is the question. I am firing hot shot every night into the abolition camp, but I must find a night for Campridge.

the abolition camp, but I must find a night for Cambridge.

God bless old Harvard! Always true to the Union. True to knowledge. True to free speech. The brain of the nation. An oak among college trees.

Last night I spoke at Lawrence: to-night at Lynn; to-morrow off for New York, and shall be here at 10 Wednesday morning. Drop in if you man this way and some properties. in if you pass this way, and see my friend Curtis Guild, of the Bulletin, who has my en gagement book.
I appreciate your good will and say yes with all my heart.

There is nigger Bunker Hill, nigger Fanenil Hall, nigger Lexington, nigger Harvard University, nigger Atlantic Monthly, and nigger everything else." There is a slight inconsistency between Mr. Train's opinions of Harvard before and after this sell, but no one must hold a genius so erratic to a rigid accountability in this respect.

WHEREABOUTS OF SIMON CAMERON.—The Paris correspondent, "Malakoft," of the New York Times, writing on the 19th ultimo, says: Mr. Cameron has just passed through Paris on his way to Scotland, where he spends a week preparatory to sailing, on the Scotia to New York on the 25th. Mr. Cameron says the Administration is now on the right platform, and ba is going home to help to urge on the war. He leaves on furlough, but intends to resign.

"Well, that's always the way with the tele-graph folks!" exclaimed Mrs. Mellow. "The good news they send us one day is pretty sar thin to be contradicted the next. Why, there's our neighbor, Sally Shute, who got a story a how her husband had been killed in one of th pattles, and the day after it was all upset, for it proved to be another man! Gin me the old mail stage, after all," continued Mrs. Mellow: "if 'twas slow, 'twas sartin."

The desire of being in the fashion does not always arise from the mere monkey instinct of imitation, but often from a desire that there may be no inference as to our peruniary inability to be so.

RESEL ACCOUNTS OF GEN. LEE'S ARMY. The resent movements of our forces indicate the entire evacuation of Northern Virginia, or the entire evacuation of Northern Virginia, or that these moves were made in reference to the reported advance of McCliellan through Lou-doun county. From all we can gather, we are satisfied that a general advance of the en-emy's forces is not anticipated, and that our Government, which edesires such a movement

The operations of the enemy, so far as frampired, do not indicate that they will risk an engagement with the well appointed and highly disciplined troops under Gen. Lee.

From Winchester and the country below, we have advices up to Thursday, when no movement of the enemy had taken place along the Upper Potomic. The report that Winchester had been evacuated is incorrect. Our cavairy pickets still hold their old positions north of Bunker Hill and east of Charlestown.

Articles investigation into the management of the commissary and quartermaster's departments would disclose a degree of recklesmoss entirely inx unable, and well calculated to depreciate the currency of the Government, if it had no other evil effect.

In conversation with a number of farmers of the valley, recently, who were frequently asked the question whether the Government intended to redeem its circulation, the inferences being drawn from its unnecessary expenditure that Confederate money was only being for the present exigency, and that final repudiation would ensue from the extravagance of the Government's commissioned agente.

PRISONERS OF WAR.

Government's commissioned agente.

Forty prisoners of war arrived in Richmond last evening, via Central train. They were captured last Saturday in the vicinity of Harper's Forry.

Four prisoners were also received at the Libby prison yesterday. They gave the manner of James G. Barstow. Wm. Williams, Joseph H. Pais and Jacob Ruffe. The prisoners were captured a few weeks since, at the mouth of the Rappahannock; Barstow was the master of the ship Allughanian; Williams, first mate, and Pate, pilot.

We could not learn under what circumstances they were captured, whether by adventuring on shore or a surprise on board of their ship.

APPRENENDED ATTACE ON SOUTHERN CITES.

It is evident that Mobile, Charlesten and probably Savannab will soon be assailed by the naval and lind forces of these cities would not touch the viral strongth of the South, yet it would to the tentiering and humiliation which no each tice would be too great to prevent.

Mobile can see in New Orieans what she hastoexpect. The occupation of Mobile by the Federals would enable them to penetrate hundreds of aniles into the interior of Alabama, and indict immense damage upon private and public interests. Charleston, an especial object of Federal malignity, would probably be made to drink the hitterest cap of all, if the were to fall into Yankse hands. We hope that every Southern city will permit itself to be converted into ashes before surrendering to the invaders. The Yathow Peyes at Wilmisoron.
